

MONTH _____

DATE _____

At this time, a car approach me and the driver see me walking the midst road, who keep honking, the car honk as a signal, but the loud music from my phone make me unable to hear the warning. So the driver go out his car and start hitting me. This thing is finally found, and we are so famous in the high school. Not only we are punished but also the phones are confiscated, and we are asked that correct our bad habits.